

Discount Program

- With the discount program, you'll have access to a wide variety of discounts including everything ranging from home delivered meals, in-home personal care, theme park tickets, travel, fitness equipment, home improvement, pet insurance, financial services and more
- This includes access to discounts on acupuncture, chiropractic, massage therapy, natural healing, and physical and occupational therapy services and more through the WholeHealth Living Choices network
  - Discounts are available for cash paid services only and cannot be combined with chiropractic or acupuncture services if covered under your medical plan
  - Acupuncture, chiropractic, natural healing, and physical & occupational therapy discounts are not currently available in California, however all other discounts will be available
- You also have access to savings on hearing aids through UnitedHealthcare Hearing

How it works:

- Simply visit uhcretireediscounts.lifemart.com and provide your email address to access all available discounts after 1/1/2022
- Select the discount of interest to view the discount details and instructions
  - You may be redirected to the respective company's website and additional registration requirements may apply

Find out more:

- For questions about how to access the discount program, call the toll-free number on the back of your ID card

